

THE LODGE
At Breckenridge
PREFERRED VENDORS

In planning your wedding you have many choices in Breckenridge. Our goal is to provide you with a few options in this decision process. The following is a list of vendors we have worked with and recommend.

CATERS

The caters listed below come highly recommended within the Summit County area. We highly suggest using a cater in the area to insure food quality and service as these caters are familiar with our property, insuring a wonderful wedding event. Each of these caters also offer elegant wedding cake options.

Gilchrist Catering ~ Bill Gilchrist

Gilchrist Catering enjoys handling each prospective client on an individual basis. This allows us to tailor a menu that compliments your taste, theme, budget, and special occasion.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHY

You have a lot of choices when it comes to photography/video production. You need to evaluate who works well with you and your personality. You should evaluate how that person will work with you, family and friends. Remember there is a distinct advantage using a local professional who knows all the mountain hideaways for that perfect scenic backdrop.

Studio Kiva Photography ~ Katie Girtman

Your wedding is such an important part of your life story, and Katie Girtman would love to help you tell it.

Drawing on her photojournalistic background, Katie specializes in wedding and portrait photography with a modern sensibility that's romantic, fun and natural-never overbearing or clichéd. She is nationally known for her expertise in photography. An accomplished professional published in magazines and newspapers all over the world, Katie's 20 years photographing, skiing, climbing, and kayaking in Colorado's incomparable high country give her an intimate familiarity with the breathtaking locations that can be a part of your own story.

And because she lives in and loves Colorado's mountains, she knows how to make them shine in your photographs just as radiantly as they do in your own mind. She makes a habit of staring down the elements on a sheer rock face or in pristine back-bowl powder to get the images you won't see anywhere else. Katie likes to take the time to get to know her clients beforehand so that she can get the right shots, and the unusual shots that capture the unique spirit of each couple's celebration without intruding. Studio Kiva Photography, Katie Girtman photographer and husband Victor art director for the company are currently located in Breckenridge Colorado. Check us out on the websites at:
