

PREFERRED VENDORS

In planning your wedding you have many choices in Breckenridge. Our goal is to provide you with a few options in this decision process. The following is a list of vendors we have worked with and recommend.

CATERERS

The caterers listed below come highly recommended within the Summit County area. The Lodge offers these caterers as our preferred catering options. You may choose a cater not listed here, however we do charge a $300 fee for bringing in an outside cater. We recommend using our preferred caterers as they are familiar with our property, insuring a wonderful wedding event or at least a caterer in the area that is used to the high altitude cooking. Some of these caterers also offer elegant wedding cake options.

Gilchrist Catering ~ Bill Gilchrist

Gilchrist Catering enjoys handling each prospective client on an individual basis. This allows us to tailor a menu that compliments your taste, theme, budget, and special occasion.

Black Diamond Gourmet ~ Andre' Hampton

If you've ever been to the Colorado high country, you know that the symbol of two black diamonds standing side by side represent a place where only the best belong. At the Black Diamond Gourmet we use this same analogy to represent our food, attitude, and service. You can be sure that we will take the utmost care in coordinating your event, whatever price point you choose.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

You have a lot of choices when it comes to photography/video production. You need to evaluate who works well with you and your personality. You should evaluate how that person will work with you, family and friends. Remember there is a distinct advantage using a local professional who knows all the mountain hideaways for that perfect scenic backdrop.

Studio Kiva Photography ~ Katie Girtman

Your wedding is such an important part of your life story, and Katie Girtman would love to help you tell it. Drawing on her photojournalistic background, Katie specializes in wedding and portrait photography with a modern sensibility that's romantic, fun and natural-never overbearing or clichéd. She is nationally known for her expertise in photography. An accomplished professional published in magazines and newspapers all over the world, Katie's 20 years photographing, skiing, climbing, and kayaking in Colorado's incomparable high country give her an intimate familiarity with the breathtaking locations that can be a part of your own story. And because she lives in and loves Colorado's mountains, she knows how to make them shine in your photographs just as radiantly as they do in your own mind. She makes a habit of staring down the elements on a sheer rock face or in pristine back-bowl powder to get the images you won't see anywhere else. Katie likes to take the time to get to know her clients beforehand so that she can get the right shots, and the unusual shots that capture the unique spirit of each couple's celebration without intruding. Studio Kiva Photography, Katie Girtman photographer and husband Victor art director for the company are currently located in Breckenridge Colorado. Check us out on the websites at:

Robin Johnson Photography ~ Robin Johnson

"Robin has this incredible gift of seeing the personality of her subjects and photographing them as themselves, not stiff and composed. I swear, her photos seem to almost breathe, as if they are more than just that moment when she clicked the shutter. It's probably because Robin seems to fit in with any group, almost as if she's known them all along - we actually had guests who thought she was an old friend of ours! The cherry on top is the fact that she uses FILM, and scans it to discs. We got the archival quality of film and the instant gratification of posting it online too!"
